

Suitable Area for Agro-Processing in Banteay Meanchey Province

Agriculture is an important sector in Banteay Meanchey province occupying almost half of its land cover. Having extensive cultivatable area across the province makes Banteay Meanchey the right place for investing in processing agricultural products.

Suitable Area per District

Suitability analysis shows potential area to establish agro-processing industry in different districts in Banteay Meanchey province. Establishing agro-processing industry in areas with suitable ecological potentials can help to avoid waste of resources occurred by transportation difficulties or adequate market in their neighborhood. As the graph shows, different districts Banteay Meanchey province, offer plenty of space for agro-processing activities.

